

Trudy Voth, music teacher

RMT, ARCT Teachers, ARCT Performers, BA, BTh.

Trudy Voth began her music studies at the age of 9, after several years of begging her mother for piano lessons. Her mother relented on the condition that she would never have to remind Trudy to practice. On this foundation of love for music and self-discipline, Trudy earned her ARCT Teacher's diploma two years after high school. Along the way she began teaching her own students, and accompanying singers, instrumentalists, choirs and school musicals, much of which she continues to do to this day. Trudy expanded her education by completing a BA English major, and a B.Theology degree from CMBC in Winnipeg, as well as earning her ARCT Performers degree. While raising her family, she taught piano and theoretical subjects in her home, to the Gr. 10 Royal Conservatory level, hosting Playing Classes and Recitals, and preparing students for festivals and exams. Later in life Trudy obtained her diploma as an Educational Assistant. She now works part-time with students and adults with intellectual and other disabilities. While not directly related to her music,

Trudy has learned better how to adapt her piano teaching approach to each individual student, knowing that what inspires and motivates one student might not do so for another. Trudy warmly welcomes new students into her home-based studio, eager to enrich their lives through music, knowing that the value of music in her own life is incalculable.
