

Wing Chow RMT, NATS, OCT, BA, BEd

Piano, Voice, Theory, Early Childhood Music

Certified Teacher of RCM and Kodaly Music Education

Special Education Specialist (OCT)

Wing Chow graduated from University of Calgary is known to be a passionate music specialist in elementary education. Along with her highly successful years as a music specialist with the Calgary Board of Education, she operated her private music school in Ontario for over 15 years “Inspiring Sounds Music Studio” where she offered Piano, Vocal, Theory and Music Theatre classes. Along with her students, Chow organized fund raising concerts which had raised over $12,000 to support the local charities in Ontario.

In September 2019, she moved to Manitoba and was the music specialist for Kindergarten to Grade 6 with the School District of Mystery Lakes. Her interest in teaching music and dedication to young people is reflected in her many years of involvement in music festivals and public performances. Chow has a great passion for teaching young children and promoting quality music education. Currently, Chow has moved to Brandon and will continue to offer qualified music programs in Brandon School Division and our local community.
